

Christina Aguilera, Underappreciated

I remember when it all first began
We were tight right from the start
It wasn't long before you came on strong
Trying hard to win my heart (trying to win it)

I played hard to get but I couldn't help
Gave up my heart in the end
You were thoughtful
Careful not to hurt the relationship

What happened to those days when
You used to be compassionate
Caring what I thought and said
So attentive gentleman
Now it's hard to turn your head away from the TV set
Taking me for granted lately and
Frankly, it's gotta quit

Oo! I feel underappreciated
Now girls help me out
If you know what I'm talking about, I said
Oo! I feel underappreciated
For all the time and effort I have put in this commitment

So back again to the very beginning,
When our love was something new
Back when romance was important
Not just another thing to do

I was feeling high on love and life,
Thought I'd never come back down
Now it seems that you and me
Have lost our solid ground

After time I realised
I seem to give more than I get,
Funny how things seem to change
After a few years commitment

Used to talk for hours on end
Of our dreams while we lay in bed
I miss those days when you stayed awake
Now you roll over and snore instead

Oo! I feel underappreciated
Now girls help me out
If you know what I'm talking about, I said
Oo! I feel underappreciated
For all the time and effort I have put in this commitment

I miss the nice massages
The long phone calls,
And the way you talked,
How it turned me on
Miss the bubble baths, had the sweetest laughs

I'm needin those days back

Oo! I feel underappreciated
Now girls help me out
If you know what I'm talking about I say
Oo! I feel underappreciated
For all the time and effort I have put in this commitment

Oo! I feel underappreciated
If you feel me, sing it with me, come on, help me out!
Oo! I feel underappreciated
Oh, ohh, oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh...
