

Christina Grimmie, King Of Thieves

Coming home, the lock's broken and the doors wide open
It's all gone
It's all gone now

I look around, just white walls
Listen now to echos
It's all gone
It's all gone now

Ever since you broke into me
Ever since you left with the key
I can't open up for anyone
Anymore

You took the sun, the moon, and the stars
Now I'm walking all alone in the dark
You stole my heart
You stole my heart
Give it back to me

All the love that we made here is gone
I'm living in an empty house of cards
You stole my heart
You stole my heart
Give it back to me

King of Thieves
King of Thieves
You're the King of Thieves
(The King of
The King of)

Inside I'm hollow
'Cause you carved my heart out
It's all gone
It's all gone now

'Cause you dealt a cold hand
And I'm stripped to nothing
Take it all
Take it all, yeah

'Cause ever since you broke into me
Ever since you left with the key
I can't open up for anyone
Anymore

You took the sun, the moon, and the stars
Now I'm walking all alone in the dark
You stole my heart
You stole my heart
Give it back to me

All the love that we made here is gone
I'm living in an empty house of cards
You stole my heart
You stole my heart
Give it back to me

King of Thieves
King of Thieves
You're the King of Thieves
(The King of)

The King of)

I'll play the victim
'Cause you planned it out
Like cops and robbers
Just surrender now

You took the sun, the moon, and the stars
Now I'm walking all alone in the dark
You stole my heart
You stole my heart
Give it back to me

All the love that we made here is gone
I'm living in an empty house of cards
You stole my heart
You stole my heart
Give it back to me

King of Thieves
King of Thieves
You're the King of Thieves
(The King of
The King of)
