

Cleo, #Hot16Challenge2

step this for a hope you got to get up when you fall everyday is a chance to achieve what you want and when I am hurt

I celebrate my scars
and they build better me they reminding me to fight for my dreams

I'm a fighter
I'm a fighter

everything's gonna be alright everything's gonna be okay
everything's gonna be alright

I'm allowed myself to fly
Fly
I'm the creator of my own mind my own mind

I'm the wizard
of my life
I will fight until I die
this is my life
my life
I'm the wizard
of my life
I will fight until I die
this is my life
my life

everything's gonna be okay
everything's gonna be alright
