

Cliff Richard, Where You Are

You say, lean on me.
I lean on you and find
That you have got the strenght
To get me through my day

You say, trust in me
I trusted you and so I found
The truth that set me free
And on my way

All that I am
And everything I'll ever be
Is because of you, because you're in my heart
And I'm dazzled by all that I see
By everything surrounding me
So come back, take me to where you are

Nothing I say, nothing I do
Could ever repay my debt I owe to you
You give and I receive
Here I stand, my head in a whirl
A little bit lost,
A little in awe of what you say
You have in store for me

All that I am and everything I'll ever be
Is because of you, because you're in my heart
And I'm dazzled by all that I see
By everything surrounding me
So come back, take me to where you are

All that I am and everything I'll ever be
Is because of you, because you're in my heart
And I'm dazzled by all that I see
By everything surrounding me
So come back, take me to where you are
