Cocorosie, Tekno love song

I fell in love with a bad, bad man
Every since I met him
I've been sad, sad, sad
I'm a jailbird to your music
A criminal in your prayer
I watch you when you sleep
Even when you're not there
Rainbows wept color all over the streets
When you went away maybe one day we'll meet
Lipstick i'd wear for one million years
Just to stop your eyes from falling down to you
I fell in love with a bad, bad man
Every since I met him
I've been sad, sad, sad
I'm a jailbird to your music
A criminal in your prayer
I watch you when you sleep
Even when you're not there
Rainbows wept color all over the streets
When you went away maybe one day we'll meet
One day we'll meet
One day we'll meet
One day
We'll meet
