

Coma, Nothing for you

i wanted be the one
the chosen one
i wanted that before it's done one day you promised me you'll never go you said my lovely man you should know you should know i didn't even try to understand i didn't realised we reach the end
my life all things done all things done
i will never lose my faith in you i will never lose my faith for you
