

Conan Gray, People Watching

That wasn't funny but she laughed
So hard she almost cried
They're counting months
They've been together almost forty-nine
He's making fun of how she acted around the holidays
She wears a ring but they tell people that they're not engaged

They met in class for metaphysical philosophy
He tells his friends i like
Cause she's so much smarter than me
They're having talks about their futures until 4 am
And i am happy for them
