

Crazy Town, Lollipop Porn

Dancing with the devil on the 13th floor
Non stop knocking on heavens door
Thinking faster flirting with disaster plastered
Im your puppet master pushin proper data
Watch the city steal your soul as the drugs take control
And the problems of the world put your life on hold
You should have known by now that it just dont stop
You like that rock hip-hop you make me grab my crotch

[CHORUS:]

I got a lollipop porn bitch

Dead on arrival

A hardcore sex bitch turned

Suicidal

All caught up now taking my chances playing my song
While the devil dances round me beggin me to play along
Now over the years Ive learned to love the pain
Im what you call a ladykiller with the gift of game
Triple X true that you do dat dat
Let it ride bring it back over 24 tracks
Were gonna rock the fuckin block tonight
Were gonna rock that shit gonna make it right
Diggi, diggi damn right, wes dynamite
So we can do this or you can do what you like
I grab the mic and make it mine
I grab the mic and make it hype
So we can do this, or you can do what you like

[CHORUS]

Riding on the 3rd rail, taking risks, life is risky
The E stands for Epic and the S stands for Shifty
So let the good times roll, theres no controlling us
Walking on water and kicking up dust
The boisterous, causing panic in the land of lust
The shellshock lollipop crazy down to make your body rock
Sugar I love the way your body talks
Now, whoever said that sex was overrated
Love leaves me devastated, lifes so fuckin complicated
Shifty say what, Epics a beat slut
And I got so many rhymes I cant keep my mouth shut

[CHORUS]
