

Daniel Cirera, Sorry Sorry Sorry

You
You are
The most
Beautiful thing
In this world

And
No words
Can ever kill
Me like yours, kill me like yours

You leave me as
Sorry sorry sorry as I'll ever be
That you've turned into somebody else, somebody else

You
You are
The most
Beautiful thing
In this world

You
You don't walk
Baby you float, float, float
Above everybody else

You leave me as
Sorry sorry sorry as I'll ever be
That you've turned into somebody else, somebody else

It's the first words we promised
The first words we said
And to look out for each other's best
It's the silence that kills me
The words you don't say
What comes unspoken - I still hear
What comes unspoken - Makes me run away
