Daniel Merriweather, Red

And Im alright

Standing in the streetlights here

Is this meant for me

My time on the outside is over

We dont know how youre spending all of your days

Knowing that love isnt here

You see the pictures

But you dont know their names

Cause love isnt here

And I cant do this by myself

All of these problems, theyre all in your head

And I cant be somebody else You took something perfect

And painted it red

No sympathy

When shouting out is all you know

Behind your lies

I can see the secrets you dont show

We dont know how youre spending

All of your days

Knowing that love isnt here

You see the pictures

But you dont know their names

Cause love isnt here

And I cant do this by myself

All of these problems, theyre all in your head

And I cant be somebody else

You took something perfect

And painted it red

When you took something perfect

And painted it red

You take the best things from

Then everything gets empty

Thats not a world that I need

Ooh, you take the best things from me

Then everything gets empty

Thats not a world that I need

And I cant do this by myself

All of these problems, theyre all in your head

And I cant be somebody else

You took something perfect

And painted it red

When you took something perfect

And painted it red

You took something perfect

And painted it red
