

Daughter, Doing The Right Thing

And they're making children
And they're making love
With their old excuses
We are built for reproduction
But they find it suited
When I am confined
I'm just fearing one day soon
I'll lose my mind

Then I'll lose my children
Then I'll lose my love
Then I'll sit in silence
Let the picture soak
Out of televisions
Float across the room
Whisper into your own ear
At the idle one

Then I'll take my clothes off
And I'll walk around
Because it's so nice outside
And I like the way the sun feels
And when it's dark
I'll call out in the knife for my mother
But she isn't coming back for me
Cause she's already gone
But you will might tell me that
Cause you know it hurts me everytime you say it
And you know you were doing the right thing
You must know you were doing the right thing

I've lost my children
I've lost my love
I've just sit in silence
Let the picture soak
Out of televisions /5x

And they're making children
Everyone's in love
I just sit in silence
Let the picture soak
