David Gilmour, Wearing The Inside Out

From morning to night I stayed out of sight Didn't recognize I'd become No more than alive I'd barely survive In a word...overrun

Won't hear a sound From my mouth I've spent too long On the inside out My skin is cold To the human touch This bleeding heart's Not beating much

I murmured a vow of silence and now I don't even hear when I think aloud Extinguished by light I turn on the night Wear its darkness with an empty smile

I'm creeping back to life My nervous system all awry I'm wearing the inside out

Look at him now
He's paler somehow
But he's coming round
He's starting to choke
It's been so long since he spoke
Well he can have the words right from my mouth

And with these words I can see Clear through the clouds that covered me Just give it time then speak my name Now we can hear ourselves again

I'm holding out
For the day
When all the clouds
Have blown away
I'm with you now
Can speak your name
Now we can hear
Ourselves again
