

Dawes, Things Happen

I could go on talking or I could stop
Ring out each memory 'till I get every drop
Sift throw the details of the others involved
The true crime would be thinking it's just one person's fault

Like an honest signature on a fake ID
Like the guilty conscience with the innocent bleam
You can just ignore it, put it out of mind
But ain't it funny how the past won't ever let something lie?

Let's make a list of all the things the world has put you throw
Let's raise a glass to all the people you're not speaking to
I don't know what else you wanted me to say to you
Things happen, that's all they ever do

In a different time, on a different floor
I might mourn the loss of who I'm not anymore
So I'm driving out to Oakland for a good look back
And a few new visions to my plan of attack

Let's make a list of all the things the world has put you throw
Let's raise a glass to all the people you're not speaking to
I don't know what else you wanted me to say to you
Things happen, that's all they ever do

I think I'll ask if she a leanly
See where she stands
I can't tell her how I feel, I don't think anyone can Sometimes we're lovers, sometimes we're friends
The hope of magnetism puts me to the bance

Let's make a list of all the things the world has put you throw
Let's raise a glass to all the people you're not speaking to
I don't know what else you wanted me to say to you
Things happen, that's all they ever do
/2x

Been qualify on things you said and listen to
Or why a mom's compelled to bronze its baby's shoes
I don't know what else that you want me to say to you
Things happen, that's all they ever do
That's all they ever do
