Dawid Kwiatkowski, Afraid

We are afraid of ourselves

Don't blame me please that we always have bad weather it's not my fault what my emotions do and I can't accept that we are not together don't understand that cold that burns inside of you coz

We are afraid of ourselves my dear We are afraid of ourselves We are afraid of ourselves my dear We are afraid of ourselves

We can go to Paris to Berlin or to Rome but still,believe me we won't feel at home I can buy you presents I can give you all but will it happen the marriage of our souls coz
