

Dean Lewis, Trust Me Mate

You're pulling out your cigarette
You bring it up towards your lips
You breathe and push the smoke away
Just like you do with all your friends

Your room is messy and full of clothes
The curtains drawn the windows closed
When did the person that I love
Turn into someone I don't know

'Cause there's a light gone from your eyes
Like the whole world's not as bright
Until you find another high

There's so much pain inside your voice
And you try to drown it out with anything to fill the void

But trust me mate you've got this
You always were the strongest
But I'm not gonna promise that this won't hurt

You were lying in the bathroom
We almost thought we lost you
'Cause tryna numb the pain only makes it worse
I'm not giving up on you

I say it's time we have to talk
You make a move towards the door
And you deny there's anything you've got to hide or answer for

You say 'I don't want you in my place,
Just get the fuck out of my face'
But I won't give up so easy 'cause I know you'd do the same

So trust me mate you've got this
You always were the strongest
But I'm not gonna promise that this won't hurt

You were lying in the bathroom
We almost thought we lost you
'Cause tryna numb the pain only makes it worse

And if it gets worse before it gets better
Don't be afraid to fall
'Cause I won't let you

If it gets worse
Before it gets better
Don't be afraid to fall

So trust me mate you've got this
You always were the strongest
But I'm not gonna promise that this won't hurt

You were lying in the bathroom
We almost thought we lost you
'Cause tryna numb the pain only makes it worse
I'm not giving up on you

I'm not giving up on you
I'm not giving up on you
I'm not giving up on you
I'm not giving up on you
