

Default, Alone

It's late again
It didn't seem to be a problem I couldn't see
You made that choice that made me want to set you free

I see you alone
How does it feel
You lost me again
Took the wrong road
Afraid to be seen
You didn't believe me

How could I prevent what was so meant to me
It's not my fault I knew this all would come to be
Why did you feel so bad to me

I see you alone
How does it feel
You lost me again
Took the wrong road
Afraid to be seen
You didn't believe me

How at all could you expect to sit and stay
After that night there is now way this would not break

I see you alone
How does it feel
You lost me again
Took the wrong road
Afraid to be seen
You didn't believe me
