

Default, I Can't Win

Please don't talk about it just leave it alone

What you need is too much for me you can't squeeze blood from stone but there you go

I can't win with or without you I don't know why, I don't know why

I can't win with or without you but still I tried, still I tried

What were you before me how was I to know

When you take you always break

And I won't give no more

So there you go

I can't win with or without you

I don't know why, I don't know why

I can't win with or without you but still I tried, still I tried

Maybe I'm wrong, maybe I'm way out of line. I lie to myself all the time. I should have been gone, so long ago. would anyone else have known.

I can't win with or without you

I don't know why, I don't know why

I can't win with or without you but still I tried, still I

I can't win with or without you don't know why, I don't know why

I can't win with or without you but still I tried, still I tried
