

Demi Lovato, Kingdom Come (ft. Iggy Azalea)

Can we love until there's nothing left
And we're collecting dust?
Use the hell out of our garden souls
Until we're fleck of rust

A love so deep
Nothing else like it
Scars go deep
But they can't find it
Flame so bright make the daylight look dark
Cross my heart
That I'll die for you
Cross my heart
That I'll always keep you
Cross my heart
Like a bitter sweet tattoo
And we go

You're my kingdom come /2x
So sit me on your throne

Let it intertwine
You hand in mine
And fill the empty space
All the demons cry
Coz you and I found love in a broken place

A love so deep
Nothing else like it
Scars go deep
But they can't find it
Flame so bright make the daylight look dark
Cross my heart
That I'll die for you
Cross my heart
That I'll always keep you
Cross my heart
Like a bitter sweet tattoo
And we go

You're my kingdom come /2x
So sit me on your throne

Gather around
Now, I'm back form my holiday
LONG LIVE THE QUEEN – what people say
And that be me
I got a king in my cavalry
Them other knights say goodnight
They get apathy
You'll never catch an Adam without Eve
You;ll never catch a Blue without Steve
See what I mean
You;l;re my Caesar, burn my chariot
You know "Family matters"?
What's Carl without Harriet?
Inseparable like Mary Kate and Ashley
Incredible, I'm ready if you ask me
To ride on tthem
Them mining chic, you feel me?
I break them down
It's a sport
I should win an EPSY
Royalty, another level;

Boy, your throne shine
Legendary love nation needs a paradigm
Call all the king's s horses and all the king's men
We rule until the end
Kingdome come

And we go

You're my kingdom come /2x
So sit me on your throne
/2x
