

Demi Lovato, Noah Cyrus, Easy

I leave the gift shop
I am keepin' all my souvenirs Keychain in a coughdrop Postcards say: Wish that you were here And i tell you not to worry To make sure that you believe in me

But the hardest part if leaving Is to make it look so easy to make it look so easy

the hardest part of leaving is accepting all the reasons tha somehow we keep repeating endlessly and the hardest part of leaving is

is to hold the heaving nreathing back form showing you how had it is for me to make it looks so easy

Cause the hardest part if leaving
Is to make it look so easy

accepting all the reasons
and the hardest part of leaving is

form showing you how had it is for me
