

Dharma, Waves

I've closed the door of yesterday
Now I've thrown your rusty key away
I'm just standing on the shore of the last chance
I feel the change as I'm getting in trance

The hole in my heart is filling up with love
I'm not lost here as I'm getting above

Emotions flooding
I'm riding on the waves
Tsunami's coming
I'm not afraid anymore

I won't waste my time with you no more
There's no point in bitching anymore
Arrogance, ignorance, deja vu
I feel the strength to see it right through

The hole in my heart is filling up with love
I'm not lost here as I'm getting above

Emotions flooding
I'm riding on the waves
Tsunami's coming
I'm not afraid anymore

I dived in you for a while
I saw the chaos in your mind
Beyond the depth of the abyss
Crumbling lands, burning bridges

Emotions flooding
I'm riding on the waves
Tsunami's coming
I'm not afraid anymore
