

Diesel Boy, Bossa Nova

Let's not be friends
Cuz then we could never fuck
Haven't you figured it out by now?
Or are you that much of a shmuck?
Do whatever you want to do
Just don't do it around me
Cuz I am tired of not feeling like I'm free
Your dishonesty's astonishing
Try growing up for awhile
I pour out my soul as I tell you the truth
And you just nod your head and smile
Its like something you can't explain
Its life making love in the rain
Its like a stranger who catches your eye
Its like telling the perfect lie
Its like a sunset walk on the beach
Its like the lecture you just can't teach
Its like finally finding your fate
Its like seeing the girl you hate
