

Diesel Boy, Fiona's Apple

Me, I'm nothing but a goddamn liar
Set me loose on the wolves I am hungry
Hope the sides of the dice add to seven
Cuz I won't be back
Clean your plate and masturbate and fill the world with pride and joy
And look him, he's such a dream, he's mommy's little boy
Tell me friends and tell my girlfriend what I said before
I said I'm leaving town, I'm outta here, I won't be back no more
I just need to believe
I have gone away to become a big star
I just need to believe
A limousine, a record deal, a video
I'll make it far
Greed, fill your pockets and your swimming pools with silver
Build me a temple cuz I'm your fucking hero
I've gone off the end of the world
And I won't be back
