

DNCE, Still Good

I'm giving you love
why you giving up? grabbing your clothes off the floor and I'm waiting for something to slow you down got a hotel somewhere in Hell's kitchen I swear a king size bad never felt so bad as it does Right now

wait a second we just started talking and talking turned into flight and fighting turned into leaving and leaving turned into nothing, the dark someone's always left in the dark
