

Do, The Day You Went Away

Hey, does it ever make you wonder what's on my mind
Hey, I was only ever running back to your side
I never cried, I just watched my life go by
And now you're leaving me behind

Why after this long is there nothing I'll keep
Oh, I can shout, but you'll pretend you're asleep
I live a lie
Believing that you're mine
Or was it just a waste of time?

Chorus:

Hey, there's not a cloud in the sky
It's as blue as your goodbye
And I thought that it would rain on a day like today
Hey, there's not a cloud in sight
It's as blue as your goodbye
And I thought that it would rain on the day you went away

Hey, does it ever make you wonder what's on my mind
I was only running back to your side
I never cried, I just watched my life go by
And now you're leaving me behind

Chorus:

Hey, there's not a cloud in the sky
It's as blue as your goodbye
And I thought that it would rain on a day like today
Hey, there's not a cloud in sight
It's as blue as your goodbye
And I thought that it would rain on the day you went away
