

Doja Cat, I Don't Do Drugs (ft. Ariana Grande)

You know you got me fucked up
Got me on stuck, chasing that rush
Had to give in, couldn't give up
I just want you, but I don't do drugs

Still i want you
All i want is you

Baby i've been in my bag
You don't really hit me back
Cause i feel like i am attached
Should've never kissed yu back
Even since i fell in love
Not quite liek being trapped
I don't like a sickness taht
Keeps me addicted bad

Hard for me to let you go
My body wouldn't let me hide it
No matter what
I wouldn't fold
Fightin' through the thunder, lightening

Forvive me
I brought it upon mysefl
Needed a fix of you
Not just a kiss from you
I needed more

You know you got me fucked up
Got me on stuck, chasing that rush
Had to give in, couldn't give up
I just want you, but I don't do drugs

Still i want you
All i want is you

[Ariana]
Tryna stay in my lane
But you play on the safe side
But you fuckin' me up on this facetime
Faded, pouring all over you
Know exactly what i wanna do
So, baby, can you hit it from the back?
Got my purring like i ma Doja Cat
Keep me in your bag
Cause you wanna hear me say
I am coming back
But this time
I want suport
Just make it last

It's Hard for me to let you go
My body wouldn't let me hide it
No matter what
I wouldn't fold

Forvive me
Needed a fix of you

You know you got me fucked up
Had to give in, couldn't give up
I just want you, but I don't do drugs

Still i want you
All i want is you
