

Dorian Electra, Flamboyant

i'm a very flaming, flammable guy some say my fire burns way too high some say they find me too hot to touch but I think it's not enough don't tell me what to do
don't tell me what to say you know I like it loud
cause that's the only way
no taste for subtely
and no time for restraint
I go all the way

I'm Flamboyant
I go all the way
I'm Flamboyant
I go all the way
Flamboyant every day
I'm Flamboyant
I go all the way

you always see me putting n a show I entertain until it's time to go you know I like to put it on display I like to work and I like to play

I've always been this way since I was young I like to steal the show from you for fun
I do it big and take up lots of space you know I like to get up in your face

I go all the way

I'm Flamboyant
I go all the way
I'm Flamboyant
I go all the way
Flamboyant every day
I'm Flamboyant
I go all the way
