

Doro feat. Tarja Turunen, Walking With The Angels

Sometimes they wonder why I am not afraid.
All this thunder and all this heavy rain
and they wonder,
yes they wonder,
yeah they do...

Sometimes they wonder if I will ever break
all these burdens and all this heavy pain,
and they wonder
yes they wonder,
but I don't...

There is a power, not from this world.
I found the power... a higher power.

(chorus)
I'm walking with an angel, walking with an angel,
I'm talking with an angel too.

I'm walking with the angels,
walking with the angels,
and they pull me through the darkness too.

I've been traveling a dark and deadly road,
sometimes so lonely but never really alone.
No wonder...
I've been under the wings of a Godly soul.

I'll tell you secrets that I've found out for sure
I wanna show you this heaven guidance tour.
Oh, don't wonder,
no don't wonder,
I can prove that it's true.

There is a power, not from this world.
I found the power... a higher power.

(chorus)
I'm walking with an angel,
walking with an angel,
I'm talking with an angel too.

I'm walking with the angels,
walking with the angels,
and they're watching over me, it's true.

There is a power, not from this world.
I found the power... a higher power.

(chorus)
I'm walking with an angel,
walking with an angel,
I'm talking with an angel too.

I'm walking with the angels,
walking with the angels,
and they're watching over me and you.

I'm walking with the angels,
I'm walking with an angel,
I'm talking with the angels,
I'm talking with an angel...

and they're watching over me and you.
We're walking with the angels.

I'm talking with the angels,
we're walking with the angels,
I'm walking with the angels too.
I'm talking with the angels...
talking with the angels too,
walking with the angels.
We're walking with the angels
I'm talking with the angels, too...

Walking with the angels too...
