

Dreamtale, October Is Mine

Silent the prayer that I sent to her way
And My Tears - they fall on my lines...

When we were young
I could fly I could run
There was nothing to fear,
All the clouds seemed to clear...

I can remember that bright
Autumn day when you died...
October is mine...

Mindless hours I spent
Im my bed asking why...
I should face all my friends
Or proceed with life...
Fantasy turned to tragedy
(but) In this emptiness...
October is mine...

Finding my way
In the darkness of day
I am blind
To happiness and light

And I recall as the leaves
Started falling...
You knew it was time
Though I needed time...

I can remember that bright
Autumn day when you died...
October is mine...

Mindless hours I spent
Im my bed asking why...
I should face all my friends
Or proceed with life...
Fantasy turned to tragedy
(but) In this emptiness...
October is mine...

All this time
I feared that day...
I wish we both had
Together gone away...
Then the pain we'd
Share the same...
Like the dancer
We'd Join the rain...

The rain...

Mindless hours I spent
Im my bed asking why...
I should face all my friends
Or proceed with life...
Fantasy turned to tragedy
(but) In this emptiness...
October is mine...

October is mine...
