

Dua Lipa, Homesick

Here, where the sky's falling
I'm covered in blue
I'm running and I'm crawling
Fighting for you
When the rain stops
Then darling What will I do
And I know I go all in
But why do I

You give me a reason
Something to believe in
I know /3x
You give me meaning
Something I can breathe in
I know /3x
It's bittersweet feeling
Longing and I'm leaving
I go /3x
But I wish I was there with you /2x

There's a crack in my window
A bird in my room
Angels all over that watch over you
When I'm walking on water
All my dreams have come true
Still, nothing means nothing
Without you, you

You give me a reason
Something to believe in
I know /3x
You give me meaning
Something I can breathe in
I know /3x
It's bittersweet feeling
Longing and I'm leaving
I go /3x
But I wish I was there with you /2x
