

Eagles Of Death Metal, Anything 'Cept the Truth

Ask me why I came so late Ask me why I made you wait Here's a story that you ought to know I had a little fight,
I was dancing at a go-go
I'll tell you anything,
baby, except the truth

I'll tell you anything,
baby, except the truth
I've got nothing but everything to prove

I only smile when I tell a lie
I swear the only one tonight

Ask me if I can be true Ask me where I'm going to I say I love you,
but you ought to know I only love the night and I always gotts to go-go I'll tell you anything,
baby, except the truth
