

Edenbridge, Somewhere Else But Here

Afloating in the ages
Cannot realize
Learn to turn the pages
Who i am to rise

I hear the rhythm pounding
The rhythm of my heart
In unison they're sounding
Come breathing and be part

Whenever you dream of me
Leavened by the lore
The beauty looking for
Imagine how you can be
When miracles appear
You're somewhere else but here

My way into the unknown
The undiscovered land
Passing on what i've been shown
Perception in my hand

Whenever you dream of me
Leavened by the lore
The beauty looking for
Imagine how you can be
When miracles appear
You're somewhere else but here

In reliance wherever i land
Be hold, carried and journey on
No train and no burden in hand
The rails of ideas will be finally gone

Whenever you dream of me
Leavened by the lore
The beauty looking for
Imagine how you can be
When miracles appear
You're somewhere else
Somewhere else but here
