

Edge Of Sanity, Burn The Sun

So what is life
Don't we all dream of dying or when to die Mesmerized we try to find the answers we rather keep inside
So what are we on our knees and image of all that used to be Straight forward death campaign
Let's go where the dreams shall always reign

So what is death
No need to die
Is it a power we can deny
Living dead a way of life
Laid to rest is this a lie
Forever turned backwards
Break the circle
Hypnotized
Insanity
Universal
Invert the starsign in the sky

[C.]

Hang on
Our journey's begun
Survival means failure under this black burning sun
Be strong your wait has been long
But these wings of fire will carry you on

[Repeat C.]

[3.]

Murder one
Race is run
Killing spree is life undone
Are you dead before you live
Do you have to take before you give
Day of time yet to come
Your clock is ticking by your dream-drum left for dead
Left to life
Will you overcome the circle strife

[4.]

The skeletons in your closet world awaits the angel of a world that burns
The dream begins
No need to repent your living sins
Nevergod
Nevermore
You're free to hate the ones before Wordly devastation is nothing compared to altered mind

[Repeat C (X2)]
