Edguy, Arrows Fly

Faking the truth in their eyes
Smile but they really deride
Never give you shelter
Lady all alone, naked to the bone...
Make you bleed and melt into tears
Down on your knees you will see
What you could be
Raise the power in your eyes
Make us rise to make us say

Down and alone - arrows fly Breaking on my soul Down and alone - arrows fly I remember times When arrows hit me causing pain All alone I've found my soul And now my soul is sane

The night has come down on the land I wanna reach out for her hand But she takes another Lonesome in my room, staring at the moon Treated like a bother

Down on my knees I have seen What I can be Raise the power in my eyes Makes me rise to make me say

Down and alone - arrows fly Breaking on my soul Down and alone - arrows fly I remember times When arrows hit me causing pain All alone I've found my soul And now my soul is sane

(Guitar Solo)

Down and alone - arrows fly Breaking on my soul Down and alone - arrows fly I remember times When arrows hit me causing pain All alone I've found my soul And now my soul is sane
