

Eighteen Visions, Revolutionizing The Sound Of Music

this is how we rock. yeah.
this is our revolution. yeah.
this is not noise.
this is the sound we want.
this is the movement.
this is the sound of music.

this is our revolution. yeah.
music as a weapon and we'll take the radio back by storm.
this is the new wave of rock n roll.
and we'll take the radio back by storm. this radios dead.
this is noise pollution you can't dance to this.
now let the music melt into another frame.
you can't steal our show.
this is our revolution and you can't steal our show.
we too can move to the sound of music.
let's dance rhe night away. dance.
I want to rock to our reuolution.
this is how we rock. this is how we rock.
let's smash the industry.
let's tear down.
can you hear the sound.
this is how we rock.
and we'll take the radio down.
