

Eldritch, Alone Again

I see your face as I close my eyes falling asleep

I am a victim of your big green eyes

Magnetic and magic to me.

I?m chasing the hope of being with you

I?m afraid it will remain a dream?

You deserve more than a man like this

Keep living for your bright hopes..

I?m warning your soul to get outta my view again

Trying to build you a big wall of protection (trying to keep you away)

I?m forcing my heart to get rid of temptations

I?M ALONE AGAIN

I?M ALONE AGAIN?.

Day after day I am struggling for life, defining my identity

My arid heart now is paving my way

Through the path of my own?

I?m warning your soul to get outta my view again

Trying to build you a big wall of protection (trying to keep you away)

I?m forcing my heart to get rid of temptations

I?M ALONE AGAIN

I?M ALONE AGAIN?.
