Electric 6, Vengeance And Fashion

I saw fire; When I looked in my lovers eyes Woah I saw; The devil dressed up in disguise Woah

And you know it gets hotter than a microwave oven When you and I commence the lovin And you like what I'm doin And I like what I'm doin to you And everybody's happy (happy) tonight

I'm a man And I'm torn between vengeance and fashion Woah And I'm tryin so hard not to get caught up in the passion Woah

And you know that my suit costs more than your house I'm a scoundral, a lover, a murderous louse And I look good in your bed And you think that I'm lookin good And everybody's happy (happy) tonight

She's a girl; And she's got some really crazy ideas now Woah She wants to push the button; And execute this innocent man Woah

And you know she's depressed in her wedding dress She's gonna have her rings removed And I like the way she's lookin Yeh she's lookin like a hundred dollars And everybody's happy (happy) tonight
