

Electric Six, Dance-A-Thon 2005

Baby, get up off the floor
That man you're with, he ain't no innocent man
He's a killer, child
I seen him rip apart a young girl with his bare hands
Now, I know you think you know just what you're doin'
You've been here time and time again before
But be careful with your heart
'Cause this thing's about to start
And it's about to escalate into a war

Twenty-five contestants start the show
But only one will survive
It's not how you dance
It's who you know

2005

It's too hot
Too far apart
To understand the game
But when this thing is over, child
Everybody here gonna remember your name
Now, baby, shoot out all the lights
And bring those crazy judges down to their knees
'Cause they're watchin' you all night, child
A distinguished panel of celebrities

Five!

And I want to reach into the fire of your heart
And I want to program all those beats right from the start
Have you ever been to New York City?
