

Elefant, Stay

A walk in the night
by your house again
why do we both pretend
that our love is dead?

you offer a kiss
in a block of ice
why do i pay the price,
you were never nice

stay, stay with me
i'm begging, i'm begging you please
stay, stay with me,
you're an angel with blood on her wings

and take me away
from this world i know
from these long nights i know, from these wrong nights i know

look in my eyes,
what you see is hell
promise not to tell
i'm not feeling well

our time is running out i have nothing left to shout

stay, stay, stay, stay
