

Elliott Yamin, Believe

You say that everything is over
I say that we can find a way
I'm here and you can think it over
I'll keep waiting, I'll keep waiting

I say there must be a solution
Some way that we can both agree
Why should it take a revolution
Just for you to talk to me

And it all comes down to what you think
Because one mind changes everything

And I believe
That breathing makes you free
And I believe
That love's our destiny
And I believe
In things I cannot see
Like faith and joy and peace and hope
And harmony

In my world we really aren't different
In your world we'll never be the same
I speak but you don't want to listen
It's easier to walk away

Slow down, wait another minute
Just once, let there be no blame
My world will always have you in it
That's one thing that time won't change

And you got to take that first hard step
There is a place and we're just not there yet

And I believe

That breathing makes you free
And I believe
That love's our destiny
And I believe
In things I cannot see
Like faith and joy and peace and hope
And harmony

We are one under the same stars
Born by the same sun
Harmony
When will it be
Finally free

Oh, and I believe
That breathing makes you free
And I believe
That love's our destiny
And I believe
In things I cannot see
Like faith and joy and peace and hope
And harmony

And I believe
And I believe

That love's our destiny
I believe
In things I cannot see
faith and joy and peace and hope
faith and joy and peace and hope
And harmony
Oh yeah

Peace and harmony
