ELO, Melting In The Sun

There's no way out and there's no way back Sailing forever out along your path Some troubles dare to lose you sleep I started thinkin' that I'm in too deep.

The wheels of life will stretch your face Squeeze you flat without a trace But when I was in trouble, I never heard you speak I got the message that I'm in too deep.

Blows my mind Melting in the sun (sun) Starts to shine (shine) Then suddenly it's gone Melting in the sun.

Stayed up and wondered what was goin' on Shifted and pissed up and silent and gone Reasons for promises that no one could keep I got the picture and I'm in too deep.

Blows my mind Melting in the sun (sun) Starts to shine (shine) Then suddenly it's gone Melting in the sun.

There's no way out, the only way is in Don't matter who you are Don't matter where you've been You can buy your freedom But it don't come cheap No doubt about it, now I'm in too deep.

Blows my mind Melting in the sun (sun) Starts to shine (shine) Then suddenly it's gone Melting in the sun.

Yeah!

Suddenly it's gone Melting in the sun.

Suddenly it's gone Melting in the sun.
