

Elysium, Farewell

down!
to this toxic despair
in the endless shade of grey all alone you'll stare
through the window of end naked truth now strikes again suicide...
enter halls of dying lies
bleeding heart...
shall beat no more
follow now
empty pages of your life
burned inside
razorblade is all that you've found you've tried all
but nothing was gained
sanity's lost
you've tried it all
in vain
travel in solitude
dead passion trip
you're passing away
with fear in cold eye
...this is now
fucking deadpoint of your life you're broken and hollow as bitter grain hurts
and frost hits blind mind
it seems you're lost with stone tears in your eyes you're tearing down the unseen wall and you're killing yourself again...
...and again...
