

Elysium, Our Love Is Eternal welcome and touch the arcana of forbidden arts a secret alchemy of erotic fantasies godless mysteries of whispering statues bittersweet dominions of their cryptic tongues breathe

this sensual catharsis
under rosy arches of thine wildest desires thirteen candles dimmed by morning spell as we approach the nightshore's haven and if you try you will stay forever ruined dreams' cathedral falls angelic voices' sad elegy heralds of infinity
I love you and always will stripping you of all your pride in my serpent's arms embrace you're shining like a star
