

Elysium, Solar Spectacle

calm lovers' crash
both swallowing pain
wound & scar industries intense indifference
I'm a jester puppet
squalid crumbcollector
hard hours' theorist
stiff pattern reactor
and I struggle for the air in my lunatic asylum
small breathless space
shy irony king
that's what I am
you crawl in loss for words drownin' in despair innocence's torn
with pills, drugs & guns
you feel like live on
with storms by your side at neon flames horizon
there's nowhere to hide
now!
look what you've done
tell me what went wrong deep under my skin you creep poison slowly flows staring at those hollow halls slippery shifts, digged out distrust never wanted this way to end never thought this heart's so cold seems everythings we had is gone all love is dead
we fall
symphy's lost
display no regrets
hear no honest truths
anger overflow
fragile sunny moments
unfairly erased
half - speed discouragement toxic shock syndrome
with none by your side down on my knees I've realised you're fuckin' waste of time the winners of a losers' cup more still come to after the break
