

Elysium, Virgin Suicide

hello my friend, hope it's the end no saving grace, no words to tell since emotions explode solidify sorrowproof shields try to reconstruct my world from broken frames of the past entering final chapter embittered daybreak surrounds virus in veins elusive pain forever blind first strike is deadly & now death becomes me convincing concept well excused nail biting show, exciting view world famous victims - opening night commercial breakdown, tense sinews graps drive needle in, solution - choke third degree filth rope, dagger, bullet - a friend or a foe uneasy movement - in for the kill senses slow down bite helping hand zero in on me scratching the surface & now death becomes us feels like I'm doing it for a first time forced to play this ugly scene an actor without screenplay in a virgin suicide forward to exit, shivering & stoned insipidlifestyle - rat race control transfigured angels with no choice at all taking their own lives - you're next in line
