

Emberghost, If You're Marching, Stop Marching

Police cars, ambulances call
Like a chorus of coyotes as they celebrate a kill
My best friend left and he never came home
Got a 30-.06 that says they're going down
Flashing lights, red, blue, illuminate my room
Cops couldn't feed their kids without a high-speed pursuit
We flew fighter jets through school zones while they were keeping busy
Throwing bullets into homes in the name of methamphetamine

We'd like to thank you for your time with us, I guess this is goodbye
All of the evidence is overwhelming, here's your sentence

My king, I have no gift for you, but I'll do my best to sing this tune
Your mother sensed the sadness in my heart
Pulled me aside and whispered in my ear

Put your head to my heart
Hear me live, follow suit

We'd like to thank you for your time with us, I guess this is goodbye
All of the evidence is overwhelming, here's your sentence

Put your head up to my heart
Hear me live and follow suit
This will all be over soon
It's gonna hurt a little

If you're marching, stop marching
If you're fighting, stop fighting
If you're hungry, be fed
If you're marching, stop marching
