

Embodiment, Yours Truly

I want to know you're broken
For the path you've chosen
I want to know you're reaping
What you have sown
And I'll give you more than
You've ever wanted
Faithful forever
With these words I promise
I promise

You want it, you got it
It's all for real

I want to know you're breathing
For the day of morrow
I want to know you'll suffer
To rest in peace
And I've given more than
You've ever wished for
Forever faithful
With these words I promise

You want it, you got it
It's all for real

It's all for real
Let it go

You want it, you got it
