

Emilie Simon, To The Dancers In The Rain

I didn't believe in anyone but I found you today
My eyes are not closed, baby, I still remember

If my words are not that clear
I know my heart is understanding
Every little kiss of you

I'm your princess for a night, maybe forever
We were dancers in the rain and it still remains

If my words are not that clear
I know my heart is understanding
Every little kiss of you

Just a sunny day in Paris, please give it back to me
I don't need to be romantic, I just have to be me

My lover is gone but I'm not on my own
With all these little kisses of you
My lover is gone but I'm not on my own
With all these little kisses of you
