

Eminem, Failed Destiny

In Love I just wanna hold my baby high above I want this hand in its rightful glove have people saying god damn shes fine me responding with damn right shes mine Even though your gone, I try and carry on Its sad but its true, me and you were through but people still think they know us and they dont know shit but i want you to know im sorry and i still love you britt but now ive come to see, our destiny will never fit and thats why now i look back being once lost then found Its getting tougher with you not around your the only thing that got me to smile i guess our love was a truthful denile sometimes i remenice at what we had not knowin i was causing my baby to be sad I never once tried to cause you this pain its crazy how one person can make u go insane Ill admit me and you we had our bad times we fought, yea but people act like its a fkin crime no couples perfect, everyone faces bullshit all i ever tried was to show you i loved you britt but its sad cause the image i portray the pieces dont fit All this time how could it be, my destiny will never be you and me But i wish people could see, how much im so crazy in love with you, its true i wish it was still me and you doin what we use to do, i wish they really knew and i wish theyd know id never let anything bad happend to you i got your back to the fullest, baby nems one to stay truest but times were tough, and shit got rough every other day same shit breakin up and we fought But just know britt my rhymes are true Britt please know ill forever Love you It just sucks cause theres a few out there that got Nems back people always tellin me get your fkin life on track But in order to do that i need you back and thats why you dont know what you got till its gone Im so sorry that our love was always off and on....
