

Eminem, Sometimes

Sometimes

Aight listen . Sometimes youve got to turn the beat up cuz its sick Listen fuck it , just let me spit.

Yow

Here goes .

Sometimes I feel like hurting the people who hurtted me

Or even murder them, see am a renegade ,revenge is what I need am not the type who smokes weed to impress

I would smoke it cuz am depressed

But I dont need drugs to make new friends

Like all the rest of you fagots think

Sometimes am starting to scrabble shit

But just cant finish it of

And when it looks ready am trying to spit it

But keep forgetting the words

Sometimes weve got to see the difference between

Real life and music and whats on our mind

Sometimes weve got to leave the misery behind

And read between the lines

Sometimes we even got to drive trough red lights

And kill mics we might wanna answer some questions right

Sometimes when am alone am starting to think

Why do I even exist Ive got nothing to bring

And in class am the weakest link and then am starting to sing

But I want yall people to realize and starting to see that somewhere deep down theres a decent human being in me sometimes when am alone I feel like quitting this life but then I realize that it aint right some shit reminds me of the dad I never had why do I keep running from what I needed so bad

Sometimes I think lifes a game

And everybodys a player who got

Something to bring or something to say

We got prayers, cops, waitresses even snobs

Who stink in there jobs but still get paid a lot

Sometimes lifes fucked up.

Sometimes weve got to see the difference between

Real life and music and whats on our mind

Sometimes weve got to leave the misery behind

And read between the lines

Sometimes we even got to drive trough red lights

And kill mics we might wanna answer some questions right
