

Eminem, When You Lie Next To Me

Ooooo

Maybe.. tonight.. we could close the door and lock ourselves inside

Take time.. to feel.. I don't wanna miss the chance to be so real

Days all fly away and I forget the truth

Everything that matters..yes..in this room

When you lie next to me

Breathing the air I breathe

We don't have to speak just be

Loves a precious thing

Don't want to waste a day or one more minute

Without you in it

Life is sooo sweet

When you lie next to me

My heart is yours

Every part of me still wants to give you more

More time...to love

Cause you never know where life will lead us

I wanna take in all the beauty here...oh

Let the world around us..just disappear

When you lie next to me

Breathing the air I breathe

We don't have to speak just be

Loves a precious thing

Don't wanna waste a day or one more minute

Without you in it

Life is soooo sweet

When you lie next to me

Ooo Lie next to me

When you lie next to me

Breathing the air I breathe

We don't have to speak..just be Whoa Oh

Loves a precious thing

Dont wanna waste a day or one more minute

Without you in it

Life is sooo sweet

When you lie next me

When you lie next to me
